ASKING RECEIVER FOR BECK & HILL CORPORATION.

Andrew C. Hill, who is one of the stockholders of the Beck & Hill Co., Inc., of this city, has brought suit in the superior court for the appointment of a receiver for the company and the winding up of its affairs.

The corporation is engaged in the manufacture of the "rock and roll" and other toys with a factory on Talman street.

The papers in the suit state that the total authorized capital stock of the company is 1,000 shares, par value $100, of which some $10 shares are issued and outstanding. The plaintiff is the owner of more than one-tenth of the capital stock, and represents that the company has received many orders and entered into numerous contracts for toys to be manufactured and delivered by it, which orders and contracts have yet to be fulfilled. The assets of the corporation are not sufficient to pay the debts and a number of creditors are threatening to sue the plaintiff for the balance of the suit against it for their claims.

The certificate of organization of the corporation filed with the secretary of state on Nov. 4, 1919, showed Arthur G. Beck, president, William F. Hill, vice president, and Andrew C. Hill, secretary and treasurer.
